FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

REDDE NORTHGATE PLC

RECOMMENDED ALL-SHARE MERGER OF

NORTHGATE PLC

and

REDDE PLC

COMPLETION OF MERGER, CHANGE OF NAME AND APPOINTMENT OF NEW DIRECTORS

On 29 November 2019, Northgate plc (Northgate) and Redde plc (Redde) announced that they had reached agreement on the terms of a recommended all-share merger of Northgate and Redde (the Merger), to be implemented by means of a Court approved scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006 (the Scheme).

Redde Northgate is pleased to announce that the Scheme has become effective as of today in accordance with its terms. In accordance with the shareholder resolution passed by Northgate Shareholders on 15 January 2020, Northgate was renamed Redde Northgate plc (Redde Northgate) immediately following the Scheme becoming effective.

As announced on 29 November 2019, Martin Ward has been appointed as CEO of Redde Northgate with effect as of today. As announced on 12 December 2019, John Davies, Mark McCafferty and Stephen Oakley have been appointed as non-executive directors of Redde Northgate with effect as of today. Biographical details for each of these new directors and details of their other appointments are included in the prospectus which was published in connection with the Merger on 12 December 2019 (the Prospectus). In accordance with Listing Rule 9.6.13, it is noted that Stephen Oakley was a director of Signature Brands Group Limited at the time it went into administration in January 2011. Other than as stated in this paragraph and the Prospectus, there are no additional matters that would require disclosure pursuant to Listing Rule 9.6.13R.

The 112,858,905 New Northgate Shares to be issued in connection with the Merger will be admitted to listing as listed securities on the Premium Listing segment of the Official List and to trading on the London Stock Exchange's Main Market at 8.00 am on 24 February 2020. Admission of Redde Shares to trading on AIM will be cancelled with effect from 7.00 am on 24 February 2020.

Holders of Redde Shares on the register at the Scheme Record Time, being 6.00 pm on 20 February 2020, will receive 0.3669 New Northgate Shares for each Redde Share held by them.

The CREST accounts of Redde Shareholders will be credited with their New Northgate Shares and share certificates for the New Northgate Shares despatched to Redde Shareholders (as applicable) within 14 days of the date of this announcement.

Following the admission to trading of the New Northgate Shares, Redde Northgate's issued share capital will consist of 246,091,423 ordinary shares admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange (with each ordinary share carrying the right to one vote) and 1,000,000 preference shares (with each preference share carrying no voting rights). Redde Northgate holds no ordinary shares in treasury. The total number of voting rights in Redde Northgate will therefore be 246,091,423. This figure may be used by shareholders as the denominator for the calculations by which they will determine if they are required to notify their interest, or a change to their interest, in Redde Northgate under the FCA's Disclosure Guidelines and Transparency Rules.

Redde Northgate's International Securities Identification Number (ISIN) is GB00B41H7391.

Terms used but not defined in this announcement shall have the meaning given to them in the circular to Northgate Shareholders dated 12 December 2019.

Forward looking statements

This announcement (including information incorporated by reference in this announcement), oral statements made regarding the Merger, and other information published by Redde Northgate and Redde contain statements which are, or may be deemed to be, "forward-looking statements". Forward-looking statements are prospective in nature and are not based on historical facts, but rather on current expectations and projections of Redde Northgate and Redde about future events, and are therefore subject to risks and uncertainties which could cause actual results to differ materially from the future results expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements contained in such information include statements relating to the expected effects of the Merger on Redde Northgate and Redde, the expected timing and scope of the Merger and other statements other than historical facts. Often, but not always, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking words such as "plans", "expects" or "does not expect", "is expected", "is subject to", "budget", "scheduled", "estimates", "forecasts", "intends", "anticipates" or "does not anticipate", or "believes", or variations of such words and phrases or statements that certain actions, events or results "may", "could", "should", "would", "might" or "will" be taken, occur or be achieved. Although Redde Northgate and Redde believe that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, Redde Northgate and Redde can give no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future. There are a number of factors that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These factors include the satisfaction of the Conditions, as well as additional factors, such as: local and global political and economic conditions; significant price discounting by competitors; changes in consumer habits and preferences; foreign exchange rate fluctuations and interest rate fluctuations (including those from any potential credit rating decline); changes to the market in which the businesses operate; changes in the employee environment; legal or regulatory developments and changes; the outcome of any litigation; the impact of any acquisitions or similar transactions; competitive product and pricing pressures; success of business and operating initiatives; changes in the level of investment in IT systems; and changes in the level of capital investment. Other unknown or unpredictable factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements should therefore be construed in the light of such factors. Neither Redde Northgate nor Redde, nor any of their respective associates or directors, officers or advisers, provides any representation, assurance or guarantee that the occurrence of the events expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements in this announcement will actually occur. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Other than in accordance with their legal or regulatory obligations (including under the Listing Rules, the Disclosure and Transparency Rules of the FCA and the AIM Rules), neither Redde Northgate or Redde is under any obligation, and Redde Northgate and Redde expressly disclaim any intention or obligation, to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
